Not My Day
Broderick Crawford
Dog Meets Dog

Last Friday morning, Aug. 20, I made nine color photographs of girl water skiers near the dam at De Gray Lake, Arkadelphia—only to lose all of them due to rough water.

It's a heart-breaker—setting up a morning's work and then losing it—but that's photography.

On the ramp at De Gray Lake, Friday morning I met Broderick Crawford, movie and television actor, and two other Hollywood men, R. F. LeMains and Lou Harrison. I was having a bit of boat trouble, so our conversation was hurried. Crawford told me he was touring Arkansas looking for real estate investments. He's the same giant of a guy, with a gruff voice, in person that he is on the screen. All three men are leaders in International Sportsmen & Explorers Club.

My boat trouble was resolved quickly enough. I had just had a new shifting dog installed in the engine. But when I took off with the skiers the engine got up to only 10 miles an hour and then raced away as though out of gear. I always carry a spare propeller, and went back to the ramp and switched propellers. We quickly zoomed up to 29 miles an hour and the ski show was on the road.

The trouble? Outboard engines use rubber-insert propellers to give slippage in case the propeller strikes something. But as propellers grow old this rubber insert dries out and gives the engine the effect of a slipping clutch.

I have always known this, but Friday was the first time I ever actually experienced the trouble. The boat is in its seventh year, so now I am having all my spare propellers overhauled with new rubber inserts.

Last week I reported a giant stray Alsatian German Shepherd male dog showed up at the garage at my residence. No collar, no name. I started feeding him in the garage, meanwhile putting a "Dog Found" notice in this column.

No one claimed him, so at the end of the week I had him examined by Dr. Herbert Rogers, veterinarian, who reported he was in the pink.

Then I put a chain collar on him that used to belong to my old Bassett hound "Gussie." We'll file off the last part of the name and simply call the dog "Gus."

Saturday night I fed the newcomer and my pet Boxer dog "Roger" from different dishes in the back yard. There was a classic fight, in which my dog lost some skin and a great deal of "face." He should have known better. The shepherd is half again bigger than the Boxer.

But Sunday they quieted down—so I guess they'll make it O.K.

Broadcasters Pick Officials

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Jack Freeze of radio station KFPW in Fort Smith was elected president of the Arkansas Broadcasters Association in the ABA's semiannual meeting here Saturday.

Other officers elected were: Michael Horne of KARK Little Rock, second vice president, and John Paul Capps of KWCK Searcy, secretary-treasurer.

Elected to the ABA board were Capps; Kermit Richardson of KBOK Malvern; Adrian White of KPOC Pochontas; J. W. Harrell of KJWH Camden and Don Whitney of KOSE Osceola.

Dignitary List Mounts

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two more congressmen have been added to the list of dignitaries that will attend the Wilbur Mills Appreciation Rally in Little Rock Thursday.

State Democratic party Chairman Joe Purcell said the latest addition to the guest list included Rep. Tom Steed, D-Okla., and Rep. John C. Watts, D-Ky.

Perry Campbell & Associates to Build Millwood Restaurant, Motel

Millwood Lake's first restaurant and motel were announced today by Perry Campbell, owner of Perry's motel and restaurant at Perrytown, and two associates, James Vess and Larry Moses.

The lake site is at Saratoga Landing on the east shore. The resort-type installation will comprise a restaurant and a motel which will begin with 25 rooms and a swimming pool, Mr. Campbell said. He estimated the initial expenditure at about $200,000.

Construction is to start at once, and the group expects to have the resort open by early Spring.

Smith Will Obey Courts on Raises

By MIKE DOAN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Texas Gov. Preston Smith says he will obey the courts if they rule he cannot implement a state employees' pay raise in defiance of President Nixon's wage-price freeze.

But the Democratic governor repeated Sunday that he thinks the President cannot override the state law permitting the Sept. 1 raises.

"It would be our guess that this ought to be carried to the Supreme Court to determine whether or not the president of the United States, any president, has the authority to void a law which has been duly enacted by the people of our state," he said.

The Justice Department has said it will file suit this week to prevent the pay increases.

Smith said he would obey a possible temporary injunction pending appeal and "if the courts hold with them (the government), well of course we'll have no alternative."

Things You Learn From Your Morning Mail Is Often Very Surprising

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

If you have to make a public speech, keep it under 40 minutes, Expert says that's the limit even a good speaker can talk without starting to put his audience to sleep.

The reason ragweed is such a bane to hay fever victims is that a single plant can fill the air with five to eight billion grains of nose-itching pollen.

If you feel you must smoke, getting more exercise may cut down on at least one of smoking's harmful effects. An Army study found that even three to four minutes of exercise by smokers helped reduce the amount of toxic carbon monoxide in their bloodstream.

Money Markets Reopen in Europe But Trading Was Slow, Cautious

By LOUIS NEVIN
Associated Press Writer
LONDON (AP) — The U.S. dollar showed unexpected strength today as Europe's foreign exchanges opened after a week-long shutdown brought on by President Nixon's new monetary policies.

While the dollar eased in such European markets as London, Zurich and Brussels, the declines were relatively minor. Dealers were cautious and turnover was relatively light, as some of the experts had predicted. Uncertainty was the reason.

For the first time in 27 years, the exchanges were operating without an internationally agreed set of rules. This was because the dollar had been cut loose from gold, and the American currency had been the basis of the international agreement.

In London, the pound sterling bought between $2.44 and $2.46, a cut in the value of the American currency of about 3 per cent. The last quotation before President Nixon's action cutting the ties between the dollar

Winner in Mississippi Faces Negro

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Voters choose Tuesday between two white candidates the Democratic nominee for Mississippi governor.

Both candidates have appealed for Negro votes.

Lt. Gov. Charles Sullivan, 47, and Jackson attorney William Waller, 44, meet in the runoff election after finishing at the top of a seven-man field in the initial primary Aug. 2.

The victor must run against Negro Fayette Mayor Charles Evers, an independent candidate, in the general election in November.

An Evers' victory in this deep South state is considered highly improbable. There are an estimated 305,000 black and 784,000 white voters registered in Mississippi.

Unlike past gubernatorial campaigns, the question of race was not emphasized in the quest for votes.

Both Waller and Sullivan outlined programs calling for progress in highway construction, education and industrialization.

The race heated up when a television program in Jackson that was to feature both candidates fell through Saturday. Each candidate said the other was responsible.

Secretary of State Heber Lader predicted the voter turnout Tuesday would be slightly lower than the first primary.

Evers has recommended his supporters bypass the primary runoff. He has charged neither candidate would bring any large changes from past years. However, Aaron Henry, chairman of the Loyalist Democratic party, which is largely composed of black, has urged blacks to vote.

The Republican party did not have any candidates for statewide offices this year.

Draft Boards Told to Start Physicals

By JERRY T. BAULCH
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Draft boards have been told to start calling up for physical and mental exams Sept. 1 men who drew numbers 1 through 50 in the last lottery.

Draft Director Curtis W. Tarr said in an interview he ordered the testing to take advantage of the partial lull at induction centers while the actual drafting of men is suspended.

And, he said, it is in line with Selective Service efforts to examine men as far ahead of their potential callup dates as possible so they can plan their futures.

Normal inductions can't resume until Congress approves the draft-extension bill. The Senate takes up the House-passed legislation Sept. 13.

"If we get a bill passed by Oct. 1 we can start inducing men by Oct. 15," Tarr said. "But there's no way of predicting numbers. I have no idea how many will be called."

The major stumbling block is a proposal by Senate-Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana to set a nine-month deadline for getting U.S. forces out of Vietnam. An agreement worked out by a conference committee knocked out the deadline, but Mansfield has said he wants it restored in the final Senate version.

Sens. Mike Gravel, D-Alaska, and Mark Hatfield, R-Ore., have served notice they plan to filibuster if attempts are made to pass the bill without the restriction.

Another big battle could occur over the proposed $2.4-billion pay boosts designed to attract men to an all-volunteer Army. In cutting $300 million from the amount originally approved by both House and Senate, the conference took raises away from lower ranking enlisted men and junior officers.

Sen. Gordon Allott, R-Colo., says he wants the full $2.7-billion pay raise.

The 1971 draft total had been estimated at about 142,000 before the draft bill deadline. The pending legislation sets a ceiling of 130,000 in the current fiscal year and 140,000 the following fiscal year.

In the first six months of this year, the Army asked for 88,000 and draft boards provided 83,000 with the difference remaining when the draft law expired June 30.

Men who lost deferments could be called up now, Tarr has said, but both he and Secretary of Defense Melvin Laird are reluctant to use this except as an emergency resort if Congress remains stymied.

The low-number men in Aug. 5 lottery won't be the first called in 1972. At the head of the line will be those whose numbers were called this year while they had deferments but who gave them up too late in 1971 to be drafted before Jan. 1.

Hearing Set for Siloam Springs Case

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—A hearing is scheduled Tuesday on a suit filed in U.S. District Court here asking for a ruling by the Siloam Springs School Board be overturned.

The decision by the board prohibits married students from participating in extracurricular activities at Siloam Springs High School.

The plaintiffs in the suit are Roy Barnett and Tommy Thompson of Siloam Springs. They filed the suit on behalf of their sons, Mark Barnett and Gregory Thompson, who are both married and in the past have participated in athletics. Barnett also was elected president of the Student Council.

The suit alleges that the board had denied the rights of the pupils and that board policy is in violation of the Arkansas Administrative Procedure Act.

Ky's Refusal to Enter Election Plunges South Vietnam Into Crisis

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky's refusal to participate in the Oct. 3 presidential election plunged South Vietnam today into its gravest political crisis since the Buddhist uprisings of 1966.

Ky proposed that he and President Nguyen Van Thieu both resign from office to pave the way for a new election. He said this was the only way "to avoid the prospects of dark days in the history of the nation."

There was no immediate comment from the presidential palace, but political observers doubted that Thieu would agree to Ky's proposal.

Prisoners Escape in Seoul, 28 Die

By K. C. HWANG
Associated Press Writer
SEOUL (AP) — Twenty-eight persons were killed and seven others were missing today after a group of South Korean military prisoners escaped from a west coast island and tried to reach downtown Seoul in a hijacked bus, Defense Minister Jung Nae-hiuk said tonight.

The Counter-Espionage Operations Command had announced earlier that the bus was commandeered by 21 North Korean infiltrators who had landed at Incheon in uniforms of the South Korean Special Forces.

The defense minister said he had submitted his resignation to assume responsibility for the incident.

The South Korean armed forces were put on the alert and Seoul's international airport was closed to outgoing flights for three hours.

The U.S. military command in Seoul was also alerted on the erroneous report, but all precautionary measures were lifted late in the afternoon, U.S. military officials said.

The defense minister gave this account of the prison break:

The 23 mutineers were "special prisoners with civilian status" in the custody of a South Korean Special Forces unit on Shilmi Island, in the Yellow Sea 15 miles west of Incheon. The prisoners broke out because of grievances they had against their captors.

25 Antiwar Activists Arrested

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
FBI agents broke up raids by antiwar activists on federal offices in New Jersey and New York over the weekend. Twenty-five persons were arrested, including two Roman Catholic priests and a Lutheran minister.

Six other persons were being sought.

Acting on information supplied by an informer, FBI agents nabbed eight persons at the Camden, N.J., draft office early Sunday and arrested 12 others elsewhere in the city. Government warrants for the arrest of six other persons on conspiracy charges were issued.

In Buffalo, N.Y., an FBI agent making a security check on the Post Office building Saturday discovered a break-in at the Selective Service office. Three young men and two women were arrested as they attempted to carry draft records away in canvas bags.

Although the FBI would not comment on a possible link between the Buffalo and Camden arrests, a Justice Department spokesman in Washington said: "I'm sure there will be an investigation to see if the two are related."

The informant told the FBI that plans for the Camden break-in included the use of nine cars and a van spotted around the Post Office building, in which the draft office is located.

The FBI said the eight-member burglary team, which the informant said had been picked at a meeting on Aug. 14, arrived at the Post Office in the van, put up a ladder and climbed to the second floor fire escape to avoid a burglar alarm on the ground floor.

Some draft records had been destroyed by the intruders, the FBI said, and others had been stuffed into mail bags and lowered to the ground from the fifth floor before the arrests were made.

Nixon Silent on Possible New Decision

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — Aides say President Nixon made important economic decisions during the weekend at the Western White House. But they aren't saying what the President decided.

Associates reported Sunday that Nixon relayed a number of decisions by telephone Saturday to Secretary of the Treasury John B. Connally in Washington. The Treasury chief heads the new Cost of Living Council that is supervising the current 90-day wage-price-rent freeze.

There was no immediate word as to whether Nixon had been most involved in current controversies—such as anti-freeze opposition by AFL-CIO President George Meany and Democratic Gov. Preston Smith of Texas—or with the council's initial efforts to plan restraints extending beyond the scheduled Nov. 12 expiration of the freeze.

Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said only that Nixon is taking advantage of a two-week stay at his oceanside home here to "think alone" and do "massive reading" on economic matters, the federal budget and his journey to Peking sometime before next May.

He also faced the necessity of doing homework for his announced Sept. 26 meeting at Anchorage, Alaska, with Japan's Emperor Hirohito—the first meeting of a U.S. president and Japanese emperor and the monarch's first trip outside his homeland since becoming emperor.

Nixon took a leisurely two-hour drive Sunday to see his daughter Julie Eisenhower off at the El Toro Marine Corps Air Station 25 miles northeast. Mrs. Eisenhower begins a teachers workshop today at Atlantic Beach, Fla., where she will teach fourth grade. With the President were his wife Pat and his Florida friend C. G. "Bebe" Rebozo.

Ziegler said Nixon is not expected to have an extensive public schedule for the two weeks. Mainly, he said, the President wants time to "do a lot of reading and a lot of contemplating."

There will be staff meetings and conferences with Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, his chief foreign policy aide, who is expected to remain in California throughout the stay.

Thunderstorm Lashes Little Rock, Area

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
An early morning thunderstorm that moved across Central Arkansas dumped nearly an inch of rain and caused some local flooding in the Little Rock - North Little Rock area.

The National Weather Service at Little Rock recorded .84 of an inch of rainfall in a 30-minute period.

North Little Rock police reported that several streets were flooded and traffic in some areas was stalled. Some minor flooding also was reported in South and West Little Rock.

A trough of low pressure that moved into Arkansas Sunday failed to pass out of the state as quickly as expected and it was this slowing of the trough that triggered the showers.

As the trough moved out of the state today, the showers were expected to end.

The forecast calls for partly cloudy, warm and humid through Tuesday with highs in the 80s and 90s and lows in the 60s and 70s.

The extended outlook calls for a chance of showers in the south half of the state Wednesday through Friday. The remainder of the state can expect partly cloudy skies with little temperature change.

Highs around the state Sunday ranged from 92 at Pine Bluff, Fort Smith and Texarkana to 81 at Jonesboro.

Bolivia Will Move to the Right Some

By WILLIAM H. HEATH
Associated Press Writer

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — Bolivia's new government of military men and civilian politicians appears certain to move to the right, but how far remains to be seen.

Col. Hugo Banzer gave little indication of his future policy in a 10-minute speech Sunday after he was named president by the forces that ousted President Juan Jose Torres and his leftist military regime.

Banzer promised to follow in the steps of German Busch, Gualberto Villarroel and Rene Barrientos, three of Bolivia's better known presidents in the past 35 years. Barrientos, a populist who was killed in a helicopter crash in 1969, was a frequent target of the left-wingers who became the chief supporters of the Torres government.

Speaking from the balcony of the presidential palace to cheering thousands, the new president said "left and right" would be erased from the Bolivian political vocabulary and "we will talk only of nationalism." But the rebel officers' chief complaint against Torres was that he was letting the country drift toward communism.

Banzer made no mention of elections, which were promised earlier by other leaders of the three-day rebellion. However, reliable sources said military backers of the new government want elections called before next May.

Banzer's cabinet is made up of two military men and 10 civilians from the two political parties which supported the rebellion, the National Revolutionary Movement, or MNR, and the Bolivian Socialist Falange, or FSB. Col. Andres Selich, commander of the army's crack Ranger regiment, was named interior minister, in charge of the police.

Friends describe Banzer himself as an "institutional" army officer. The two political parties have been bitter enemies in the past, but they appeared to have patched up their differences, at least for the present. The MNR has traditionally been a leftist Roman Catholic party, while the FSB has been trying to shed its conservative image. But there were doubts the coalition would last.

The new government also can count on the stiff opposition of the leftist workers, Marxist politicians and student extremists who formed the bulk of Torres' support. Spokesmen for the leftist unions already have labeled the new government "fascist," supported by "the United States, Argentina and Brazil."

The direction taken by the new government is sure to draw close attention from neighboring Argentina, whose military leaders recently decided to call for elections and return the country to constitutional government after five years.

Even more interested will be Chile, where an elected Marxist, Salvador Allende, heads the government, and Peru, ruled by a nationalist military government which ousted a constitutional president in 1968.

The MNR announced that its titular head, former President Victor Paz Estenssoro, would return today from Lima, Peru where he has been in exile since Barrientos ousted him in 1964.

Banzer commanded the national military academy until last January, when Torres charged him with leading a plot to overthrow the government. The government arrested him and other dissidents on Wednesday, and this touched off a

Reporter Says He Was Beaten by Blacks

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Gazette reported that one of its newsmen was beaten Sunday afternoon when he attempted to cover a meeting about alleged police brutality at the Dunbar Community Center in Little Rock.

The reporter, Bob Stover, said about six blacks participated in the beating. Stover, 23, said he spent about five minutes at the meeting when the beating occurred.

Stover said he was struck from behind, fell to the ground and was kicked.

He was treated at a Little Rock hospital where he received two stitches.

Stover, who was white, was sent to the meeting after the Gazette learned that the alleged beating of Charles E. Williams, 27, a black union organizer, was to be discussed. Williams was allegedly beaten when he was arrested by Little Rock police July 30.

demonstration Thursday in Santa Cruz, the country's second city in eastern Bolivia, that mushroomed into the rebellion.

The revolt spread rapidly, and President Torres fled from the presidential palace and went into hiding Saturday night after hard fighting in La Paz in which more than 50 persons were killed and 100 were injured.

Big 4 Agrees on Future of Berlin Plan

By HUBERT J. ERB
Associated Press Writer

BERLIN (AP) — The Big Four ambassadors have completed a draft agreement on the future of Berlin and will submit it to their governments for approval, U.S. Ambassador Kenneth Rush announced today.

"We have a draft agreement for submission to our governments," Rush told reporters. "I feel it will improve the situation in Berlin."

Pyotr Abramov, Soviet ambassador to East Germany, stood at Rush's side and declared: "Everything is perfect."

The agreement was finished at six sessions in the past two weeks, and while its details were not announced it presumably included the vital question of Western access to West Berlin.

Abramov, Jean Sauvagnargues of France and Sir Roger Jackling of Great Britain stood on the steps of Rush's West Berlin residence to pose for photographers.

It was the 33rd session of the Big Four ambassadors to divided Germany in a 17-month series that began on March 26, 1970. Rush, Sauvagnargues and Jackling are ambassadors to West Germany.

The agreement is understood to involve a wide spectrum that includes:

—Access to and from isolated West Berlin.

—Passage through the Wall into East Berlin for West Berliners.

—Conditional West German political presence in West Berlin.

—West German representation of West Berlin abroad.

—Virginia N. Knauer, special assistant to the President for Consumer Affairs, said her office has received complaints on some markups since the wage-price freeze began.

In an interview in U.S. News & World Report, she said: "I think we're going to make examples of some who may be unapologetic enough to try to gouge and take advantage of us."

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Glen Campbell and Dionne Warwick sat in the dressing room rehearsing a song.

Nearby on a stage, the company went over a production number which, in the finished taped show, would bring on the Smothers Brothers. Campbell occasionally glanced at a television monitor which showed him the progress of the rehearsal.

Campbell, returning for his fourth season with CBS, seemed as casual and relaxed in his dressing room as he is on the stage. This year, in a new and very competitive time slot—opposite "Mod Squad" on one side and "Ironside" on the other—the going is bound to be difficult.

"We're not doing too much different," he said, "but we're breaking up the concert segments into shorter periods. And we're experimenting with me opening the show out with the studio audience. In the first show we taped this season, we also closed with me in the audience, but I didn't like that: I think you should say good night from the stage and get off."

As usual, the show's producers are interested in presenting young, popular singing groups with hit records. Campbell, who served a long apprenticeship in the music business before emerging as a television star, is concerned that so many talented young musicians get a hit record, move on to performing—and disappear.

"I think they arrive and depart because they didn't go to school," he said. "By school, I mean that they charge out and give concerts without first learning how to perform and entertain. You have to have something more than just singing and playing."

Mrs. Lucy Williams took Ken Trout and Donald Williams to Fayetteville on Saturday to enter U. of A.

FOUR OF THE BIG NAME STARS who will be making an attempt to break into TV with regular series in the coming season are, from left, Shirley MacLaine (Shirley's World), Rock Hudson (McMillan and Wife segments on NBC Mystery Movie trilogy), Glenn Ford (Cade's County) and James Stewart (The Jimmy Stewart Show).

Warns Women About Silicone Injections

By C.G. MCDANIEL
AP Science Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — Women who want larger breasts should beware of having liquid silicone injections to achieve them, the American Medical Association says.

The AMA warning follows a report by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration that four deaths have resulted from this illegal method of breast enlargement.

The AMA said Sunday it has received reports that physicians are receiving an increasing number of patients suffering from complications from liquid silicone injections.

The time has come "for a full-scale warning to the public as well as to the scientific community," the AMA said.

The warning does not apply to silicone gel implantations. Early this summer, the AMA said, a woman died in Houston, Tex., after liquid silicone injections in her breast, and an unlicensed practitioner was charged with murder. An autopsy showed that silicone had entered the bloodstream and lodged in the lungs.

Dr. Marion J. Finkel of the FDA said: "Massive abscesses, necessitating surgical removal of the breast ... have followed such injections."

The material apparently reaches the brain as well as the lungs on occasion after entering the bloodstream, he said.

Few physicians are licensed to use liquid silicone, and these

Big Names in Spotlight as New TV Season Opens

By DICK KLEINER

HOLLYWOOD — (NEA) — Every new television season starts out with the promise of better things. It's like the concept of tomorrow: It must be better than today.

And this '71-'72 season seems to be a particularly interesting season, at least from the vantage point of late summer. There is a higher percentage of new shows this year than last, and, most significantly, the new shows are studded with big stars.

The main reason for this, of course, is the decline in motion picture production. With few movies to be made, some major movie names have switched to the once-disdained milieu of television. You'll have such stars as James Stewart, Glenn Ford, Rock Hudson, Rod Taylor, Tony Curtis, Shirley MacLaine and Anthony Quinn on TV regularly this year. This is the year, too, when the FCC took a half-hour each night away from the networks. The idea was to encourage local programming. But, just in case the local stations are too lazy or too poor to do their own, syndicated packagers are going all out to take up the slack. They are peddling old shows and, too, they are making some new ones.

So, besides the 21 new shows slated by the three networks, there may be other new shows, depending on what city you live in. And these possible additional series have some fair-sized stars, too—Robert Brown, of Here Come the Brides, is filming something called Primus, in the Bahamas; Jack Albertson has the title role in a medical-adventure half-hour called Doctor Simon Locke; Harry Guardino is playing a special investigator called Monty Nash; and there are several others.

But it is the new network shows which attract the most attention. Some of them sound like winners, but there's a need for a lot of luck in the TV business. Last year at this time, there were 25 new shows, and seven came along in January. Of those, only ten will be back for a second season—Flip Wilson, The Odd Couple, The Partridge Family, Arnie, The Mary Tyler Moore Show, The Smith Family, All in the Family, Night

Gallery, Alias Smith and Jones and McCloud, which becomes part of NBC's ambitious Mystery Movie.

This is a three-segment 90 minutes, with Dennis Weaver's McCloud alternating with Peter Falk's Columbo and Rock Hudson's McMillan and Wife. All three deal with crime-fighting, in various aspects.

Crime-fighting is probably the biggest trend this year, and there is also a geographical trend. There are four new shows set in the American southwest.

In Nichols, James Garner plays a sheriff in the southwest in 1914. In Cade's County, Glenn Ford plays a sheriff in the southwest today. In Bearcats, Rod Taylor and Dennis Cole play two investigators in the southwest in 1914 (obviously, that was a good year in the southwest). And in The Man and the City, Anthony Quinn plays a mayor in the contemporary southwest.

Other crime-busters on the new schedule are George Kennedy, starring as Sarge, a cop-turned-priest who still battles crime; William Conrad as a private eye named Cannon; James Franciscus as Longstreet, a blind insurance investigator; Robert Conrad as The D.A.; David Janssen as O'Hara, U.S. Treasury, a T-Man at work; and Tony Curtis and Roger Moore, as The Persuaders, two gentlemen-adventurers

Even a couple of comedies have a crime flavor. The Partners has Don Adams and Rupert Crosse as bumbling cops and Chicago Teddy Bears involves Dean Jones in the '20s, running a speakeasy and trying to keep out of the clutches of the law and rival gangsters.

There are relatively few new situation comedies. Shirley MacLaine has one again made in England, as a photo-journalist who roams around Europe. Larry Hagman and Donna Mills, in The Good Life, play a couple who decide to try life as butler-cook to rich folks. Sandy Duncan plays Funny Face, a girl who is a combination coed-and-model. Dick Van Dyke is back, as a TV talk show host with a family. Jimmy Stewart, on his new show, plays a college professor. And Bobby Sherman's Getting Together has him as a song writer.

That leaves only two others—Owen Marshall, with Arthur Hill, is a drama about a lawyer in a medium-sized city, and The Funny Side is a comedy-variety hour with five couples showing varying responses to the same situation, with Gene Kelly and others as the hosts.

It's a line-up that reads well, and the presence of so many stars should make this an attractive season. But the odds against success are still terribly high.

HELEN HELP US!

HE GIVES THE CHILDREN EARLY TRAINING

Dear Helen: What is your opinion of a parent who takes his young children with him on the picket line, and allows them to call people who cross it "scabs" or "pigs"? He thinks it's real cute.

—TROUBLED

Dear Troubled: I think it's crude (and cowardly) to get your dirty work done by the kids. —H.

Dear Helen:

I met this man ten years ago and we became good friends. After that we both divorced our mates, but never bothered to get married. He came to live with me five years ago and we were both happy.

Then he got a job as manager of a bar. I didn't want to spend my evenings down there but, if I didn't, he'd accuse me of being with other men. Last year he bought the bar.

So lately I've started going, and now he says I come to spy on him! He's polite to his customers, but treats me as though I don't exist. Especially when I ask for another drink.

Why has he changed? —BARRED

Dear Barred:

Maybe he doesn't want you drinking up the profits. . . Maybe you ARE spying on him. The insecurity of a non-marriage creates many changes—in both partners. —H.

Dear Helen:

HOTEL EQUALITY
JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — This country's first fully multiracial hotel has been opened at Jan Smuts International Airport near here.

A spokesman said "we are not a political hotel. We obey the laws of the land. But every guest in the hotel will be treated with complete equality. We were asked by the government to build a multiracial hotel and this is what we have."

Please tell your poor wife-of-the-tiny-bust to dry her tears and thumb through any fashion magazine. She's back in style, and we "C" cups are out again. The "no-bra" look isn't for the endowed!

If this doesn't work, send her to visit her local chapter of the Mastectomy Society. There she'll see flat chests and no tears. There are approximately 69,000 new members each year—and they're not worrying about "32-C" for concave." They're only glad they're alive! —DELORES

Dear Helen: The girl who nursed her baby and lost her upholstery isn't alone. I was a 36-B when I became pregnant. After two babies, I'm a 32-double-A, but I'd rather wear a padded bra than take a chance with silicone.

She should be glad, as I am, that her baby is healthy and her husband has a sense of humor. —NANCY

Dear Helen:

I had the same trouble after nursing my babies, but I gently rubbed on olive oil for about six months and got my figure back. Natural is better. —NOW GREAT GRANDMOTHER

Dear Helen:

Several times you've suggested putting little love notes in your husband's lunch or suit pocket. Yesterday I did it. Just a one-sentence note. While I'm still on cloud nine, I must let you know how fantastic the results were:

He never said a word about reading the note, but his phone call in the middle of the day, and romantic attention that night, said it all.

It was Romance with a capital R (not sex). I am like some of your other readers who aren't happy with pawing when they want a romantic touch or word. They should try surprise love letters! —DONNA (married 22 years.)

Weiskopf Winner at Philadelphia

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Tom Weiskopf said the toughest guy he had to beat in the $150,000 Philadelphia Golf Classic was Tom Weiskopf.

Weiskopf shot rounds of 67-71-66-70—274; Hill 68-68-71-68—275, and Nicklaus 66-73-70-67—276.

"I won on sheer determination and desire and it was the most rewarding tournament I've ever won except maybe for my first," said the 28-year-old Ohioan after shooting a 14 under par 274 to win the $30,000 first prize by one stroke over Dave Hill and two better than Jack Nicklaus.

"I proved something to myself," said Weiskopf, who after taking a double bogey and a triple bogey on the last two holes at Sutton, Mass., a week ago, almost decided to forget tournament golf.

He recalls having second thoughts that quitting the tour would be the easy way out and not the right thing to do. So, he packed his clubs and came to Whitemarsh Valley Country Club for the Philadelphia tournament.

The crucial hole for Weiskopf was the 485 yard par five 17th. Hill hit that green in two and rolled in a three foot putt for an Eagle to tie Weiskopf at 13 under par. Hill went on to par the 18th and finish at 13 under par 275. Weiskopf, however, matched the eagle with a 10 foot putt to take a two stroke lead.

Weiskopf, who won the Kemper Open earlier this year, wasn't about to be psyched out of his day by an amusing incident shortly before he teed off. Nicklaus' eight-year-old son walked past a room where Weiskopf and three golf writers were watching a professional football game on television. The youngster stopped, looked in, and spying Weiskopf said, "Did you play yet Tom?"

The boy, of course, didn't realize that as the leader after three rounds, and the man his dad had to beat, Weiskopf was in the final twosome of the day.

Nicklaus earned $10,755 here, including $105 in the Pro-Am, boosting his earnings to $205,568—$5,998 off his all-time 1967 money winning record of $211,566.

Bold Reason Captures 6th in Row

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Trainer Angel Penna's prediction that Bold Reason would be one of the best 3-year-olds to come out by the blue and gold point on the canoe in the infield lake at Saratoga.

The canoe is painted in the colors of the owner of the Travers Stakes winner, and for the next year those colors will be those of William A. Levin, owner of Bold Reason.

Saturday's 102nd running of the Travers resulted in Bold Reason's sixth straight victory and left him undefeated since the Triple Crown races in which he finished fifth in the Preakness and third in the Kentucky Derby and Belmont Stakes. Penna had said at the time that Bold Reason would come along.

In two other six-figure races Saturday, Mrs. June H. McKnight's 5-year-old Princess Pout upset the boys in the $16,400 Benjamin F. Lindheimer Handicap at Arlington Park and Jack Dreyfus' Peace Corps romped in the $100,000-guaranteed Hobson Handicap at Liberty Bell, which was the first $100,000 race in the relatively short thoroughbred racing history of Pennsylvania.

Bold Reason, ridden by Laffit Pincay Jr. and carrying 120 pounds, took the lead inside the quarter pole and then held off West Coast Scout, 120, for a three-quarter length victory, 114, third.

Bold Reason ran the 1 1/4 miles in 2:02 2/5 and paid a $4.80 as the Pout paid $7.20.

New Coach Is Shaking Up Oilers

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ
Associated Press Sports Writer
HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Practically the only thing that hasn't changed about the Houston Oilers is the oil derrick emblem on the sides of their helmets.

And from the shakeup new head coach Ed Hughes has undertaken, even that may not be safe.

Last season's 3-10-1 finish must have told Oiler owner Bud Adams something. The Oilers have been revamped from general manager to trainer.

Hughes replaced Wally Lertum as head coach, brought in almost a completely new staff and fell right in with the overhaul. He's shown no quarter in making trades he feels will help mold the Oilers into a fighting outfit.

Hughes biggest shocker was trading the team's most exciting player, Jerry LeVias to the San Diego Chargers for defensive tacklers Ron Billingsley and Gene Ferguson.

Many fans gasped. LeVias was about the only thing they had to cheer about in 1970. "I just bought my season ticket," one fan said, "and the only reason was to see Jerry LeVias."

But Hughes reasoned that excitement didn't always win football games. He needed to fill gaps in his defensive and offensive lines and LeVias helped him do it.

"Jerry didn't put the Oilers in a division championship," Hughes said. "Jerry could help me right now, but we needed some other people and I thought it was for the best interest of the ball club."

"This is not taking anything away from Jerry, but the best receiver in the world is no good if you can't keep the defense off the quarterback."

Hughes already had established quite a reputation as a trader before he sent LeVias packing. And most of the activity was geared to juicing up the Oilers' anemic pass rush and pass protection from 1970.

Sturm is tying with Bobby Maples for the center job. Young replaces Ken Gray, who retired, and Walton took over for Glen Ray Hines, traded to New Orleans.

The Oiler face-lift continues on defense. Dave Rowe and Mike Tillemann, traded away from New Orleans, replace Willie Parker and Tom Dromes at tackles. Pat Holmes and Elvin Bethea are the incumbent defensive ends but they've got competition.

John Charles, who came to the Oilers from Denver, replaces last year's right safety Johnny Peacock, who was waived, and Ken Houston remains at his left safety position.

The Oilers also raised eyelids in the draft by taking quarterbacks in the first two rounds.

Dan Pastorini, regarded as one of the "big three" quarterbacks of the 1971 draft, was the No. 1 pick followed by Kansas State's Lynn Dickey, who has been even more impressive than Pastorini in drills.

They're competing with veteran Charley Johnson but their arrival permitted Hughes to place another veteran, Jerry Rhone, on waivers. Johnson and the two rookies have had their good moments in exhibition play.

The Oilers aren't overstocked with talent at running back but Woody Campbell and Joe Dawkins return along with Mike Richardson.

The Oilers' receiving corps is impressive. Tight ends Willie Frazer and Alvin Reed give Hughes no cause for worry and Charlie Joiner, Ken Burrough, also traded from New Orleans, and Jim Beirne are wide receivers.

Hughes says he's happy with his trades so far and won't hesitate to make further deals if they help the team.

NL Leaders Are Again Defeated

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Pittsburgh Pirates and San Francisco Giants can't win for losing ... or can they?

The National League's divisional leaders—the Pirates and the Giants since April 12—took it on the chin again Sunday by identical 6-3 counts from Cincinnati and Montreal, respectively.

But again they didn't lose any ground when the runners-up also lost—the East Division Chicago Cubs bowing to Houston 4-3 and the West's Los Angeles Dodgers falling to Philadelphia 3-2.

Although the Pirates have dropped three in a row and 20 of their last 29 starts, they still lead the Cubs by 4 1/2 games. The Giants also have lost three straight and 11 of 18 but are 6 1/2 games in front of the Dodgers.

Elsewhere in the NL, St. Louis crushed Atlanta 13-4 and the New York Mets downed San Diego 4-2.

In the American League, Baltimore trimmed Minnesota 6-3, Oakland took two from Boston 9-3 and 2-1, Milwaukee nipped Detroit 2-1, Kansas City defeated Washington 4-1, California zeroed the New York Yankees 3-0 and the Chicago White Sox beat Cleveland 5-3.

The Pirates jumped to a quick 2-0 lead over Cincinnati when Bob Robertson smacked a bases-loaded single off Gary Nolan in the first inning. It didn't last long.

Tony Perez singled home a Cincinnati run in the last of the first and, after Pittsburgh made it 3-1 in the third, Hal McRae's double, Lee May's triple and an infield out knotted the score in the Reds' half.

Pete Rose snapped the deadlock in the fourth with a two-run homer, his 10th of the season and 100th of his career, as the surging Reds won for the 11th time in 14 meetings this month with the top four teams in the NL East.

The Big Red Machine, still hoping for a miracle finish after a horrible start, is only five games out of second place in the NL West and 1 1/2 behind the Giants.

BATTING — Lou Brock, Cardinals, reached base five times on two hits and three walks and scored each time, driving in two runs and stealing two bases in St. Louis' 13-4 romp over Atlanta.

PITCHING — Andy Messersmith, Angels, scattered six hits and pitched California to a 3-0 victory over the New York Yankees.

run homer and rookie Ernie McAnally tossed a seven-hitter as the Expos turned back the Giants and ran their winning streak to seven games, a club record.

The Expos also took all six games from the Giants at Jarry Park—another first—and they did it before their second largest home crowd of the season, 28,102.

Staub's home run in the fifth wiped out a 3-2 Giant lead, which included a two-run homer by Alan Gallagher.

McAnally fanned Ken Henderson—the potential tying run—to end the game following pinch singles by Willie Mays and Willie McCovey.

Houston pushed across an eighth-inning run on Doug Rader's double, Jack Hiatt's single and Roger Metzger's infield out to edge the Cubs. Bob Watson helped the Astros to a 3-1 lead with three hits, including a run-scoring single and his sixth home run, before the Cubs rallied for two runs in the sixth on singles by Glenn Beckert, Billy Williams and Joe Pepitone, Ron Santo's sacrifice fly and Cleo James' squeeze bunt.

The third-place Cardinals—they trail Pittsburgh by 5 1/2—snapped a five-game losing streak by thumping Atlanta as Joe Torre drove in four runs with his 21st homer and a double. Jose Cruz also homered in the Redbirds; 14-hit attack and Lou Brock scored five times.

John Vukovich singled home two runs in the fourth inning and the Phillies held on to edge the Dodgers behind Billy Wilson's clutch relief pitching.

Bill Russell homered in the sixth for the Dodgers and pinch hitter Bobby Valentine singled a run across in the seventh. Wilson relieved Ken Reynolds with one out and two runners aboard in the eighth and got Richie Allen to hit into a double play for the second time.

The Mets chased San Diego's Steve Arlin with a tie-breaking three-run rally in the fifth inning, including a run-scoring triple by Cleon Jones and singles by Art Shamsky, Ken Boswell and Ed Kranepool. Krane-pool also singled home the Mets' first run while Nate Colbert tripled and scored in the fourth for the Padres and homered in the ninth, his 23rd.

Gary Gentry needed last-out relief from Tug McGraw.

Porkers Will Begin the Rough Work

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks ended three days of conditioning Saturday and began workouts today in pads.

Coach Frank Broyles emphasized that last week had been designed to teach players their assignments.

"The three days were spent teaching running and passing plays and stressing the kicking game," he said.

Broyles said he had been pleased with the attitude of the team.

"Their legs are tired, but they continue to keep learning," he said. "That's a good sign when you keep learning when you're tired."

Ex-Racer Quits Grantelli, Lashes Car

TALLADEGA, Ala. (AP) — Former stock car racing great Fred Lorenzen quit car owner Andy Granatelli Sunday, saying, "I refuse to drive a car that is not competitive."

Lorenzen, who finished a poor fourth in the Talladega 500 at Alabama International Speedway, had been driving a Plymouth under contract with the oil additive king since the start of the 1970 season.

"I haven't had a competitive car since we got together," the 36-year-old native of Elmhurst, Ill., said. "I'm a charger and I refuse to sit back and take it easy in a car that won't run up front."

Lorenzen's car was built and maintained by Nichols Engineering of Griffith, Ind. Nichols also owns a Pontiac assigned to three-time Grand National champion David Pearson. The Pontiac failed to make the Talladega 500 field after being ruled illegal by NASCAR officials.

In Sunday's race, Lorenzen trailed winner Bobby Allison by more than four laps and never was strong enough to run with most of the top cars.

The Milwaukee Brewers had Dick McAuliffe coming and going and Freddie Patek kept Washington on the run.

The Brewers who had lost 11 consecutive games to the Tigers in Detroit, ended that dry spell with a 2-1 decision Sunday, scoring the winning run on a little hesitation step against McAuliffe.

Kansas City dumped Washington 4-1 with Patek stealing two more bases and increasing his major league leading total in that department.

Elsewhere in the American League Sunday, Chicago tripped Cleveland 5-3, California blanked New York 3-0, Oakland swept a doubleheader with Boston, winning the opener 9-3 and taking the second game 2-1, and Baltimore beat Minnesota 6-3.

In the National League, Philadelphia trimmed Los Angeles 3-2, New York downed San Diego 4-2, Cincinnati rapped Pittsburgh 6-3, Montreal defeated San Francisco 6-3, Houston edged Chicago 4-3 and St. Louis routed Atlanta 13-4.

The Brewers and Tigers were tied at 1-1 in the sixth inning when Tommy Harper opened with a double for Milwaukee.

Ron Theobald's single moved Harper to third.

Next, Jose Cardenal bounced to second baseman McAuliffe. Instead of going for the double play, McAuliffe threw to the plate to cut off Harper. The only problem there was that Harper didn't try for the plate.

He dove back to third base instead, leaving the bases loaded.

Dave May followed with another bounce to McAuliffe. This time the second baseman

Duncan touched off a seven-run A's explosion in the seventh inning with his 14th homer of the year and then capped the rally with an RBI double. Earlier, the slugging catcher had driven in Oakland's first two runs with his single.

The A's took the second game on Reggie Jackson's inside-the-park homer with two out in the ninth inning off Sonny Siebert. It was Jackson's 23rd homer. Bert Campaneris' leadoff homer in the first accounted for the A's other run.

Diego Segui pitched a three-hitter for Oakland, while Siebert permitted five hits.

The Orioles opened their East Division lead to a fat 11 games, using four home runs to beat Minnesota. Don Buford, Dave Johnson, Paul Blair and Andy Etchebarren all reached the seats for the Orioles.

Dave McNally earned the victory, his 15th, with late help from Eddie Watt. The Orioles Patek, Kansas City's pesky little leadoff man, ran the Royals into a first inning run when he reached on an error and then stole second and third base before scoring on Lou Piniella's single.

The two swipes gave the little 5-foot-4 infielder 43 stolen bases for the season, tops in the majors.

Four innings later, Patek was at it again, touching off another KC rally with a one-out double. He moved to third on an infield grounder and then scored on Gail Hopkins' single. Piniella's second single and Bob Oliver's double delivered two more runs.

Paul Splittorff got last-out help from Tom Burgeimer to pickup the victory, his third over Washington this season.

The White Sox got some long ball punch with Pat Kelly, Mike Andrews and Carlos May all polling home runs to beat Cleveland.

Wilbur Wood ran his record to 17-9 for the Sox, who've won seven of their last eight games. Roy Foster homered for the Indians.

Andy Messersmith hurled a six-hitter while Jim Spencer and Roger Replogle rapped home runs as California clipped New York. Spencer also drove in another run with a single and finished the season with a .412 batting average, four homers and 10 runs batted in against the Yankees.

The shutout was the fourth of the season for Messersmith, who outduelled Fritz Peterson. New York managed just one run in the three weekend games against the Angels.

Dave Duncan drove in four runs with a single, double and homer as Oakland routed Boston in the first game of their doubleheader.

Duncan touched off a seven-run A's explosion in the seventh inning with his 14th homer of the year and then capped the rally with an RBI double. Earlier, the slugging catcher had driven in Oakland's first two runs with his single.

49ers Beat Chargers in Pro Play

By BERT ROSENTHAL

Associated Press Sports Writer

A recent trend has seen many Americans decide against a chance of playing in the National Football League and opt for a football career in Canada. Vic Washington hopes to change the flow of traffic.

Washington, who played three years in the Canadian Football League after starting for two varsity seasons at the University of Wyoming, has come back over the border and is trying to make it with the San Francisco 49ers of the NFL.

The flash 5-11, 190-pounder from Plainfield, N.J., enhanced his chance for a spot on the roster by scoring on runs of 13 and 10 yards Sunday as the 49ers beat the San Diego Chargers 28-17 in an exhibition game at San Francisco.

In other Sunday preseason contests, Detroit edged Baltimore 23-20; the New York Jets trimmed the New York Giants 27-14, and Buffalo whipped New England 28-14.

On Saturday, it was Kansas City 27 New Orleans 7; Atlanta 21 Denver 10; Green Bay 10 Miami 7; Minnesota 34 Chicago 14; Houston 21 Philadelphia 17, and Oakland 20 Los Angeles 7.

In Friday's only game, Dallas nipped Cleveland 16-15.

The exhibition weekend will be completed tonight with Pittsburgh at Cincinnati.

The versatile Washington, who also plays wide receiver, defensive back and runs back punts and kickoffs, called his performance against the Chargers "a very important day for me."

"A lot of people said I wouldn't make it as a running back in the NFL, because I'm not big enough," he added. "But the only thing that matters is how big your heart is. After three years in Canada (two with Ottawa and one with Vancouver), I thought I'd have a problem in adjusting. But I'm not."

At Wyoming, Washington led the nation in punt returns as a sophomore and was second as a junior, while playing both offense and defense. He also was a triple jumper on the track team and holds the school indoor and outdoor records in that event.

However, after his junior year, he had academic problems and went to play in Canada. When his class graduated in 1970 the 49ers made him their fourth draft choice, but contractual matters kept him in Canada until this year.

Now, he's come back to the United States, going in the opposite directions of such 1970 All-Americans as Steve Worster of Texas, Joe Theisman of Notre Dame, Jim Stillwagon of Ohio State and Rock Perdoni of Georgia Tech, all of whom elected to play in Canada this year.

Others who went North this year include Greg Barton of the Philadelphia Eagles of the NFL, Little All-American Jim Lindsey of Abilene Christian, junior Leon McQuay of Tampa, and quarterbacks Jim Chasey of Dartmouth and Don Moorhead of Michigan.

The elusive Washington scored after San Diego had taken a brief lead on Dennis Pardee's 29-yard field goal. His first touchdown came after defensive end Tommy Hart recovered a fumble on the Charger's 13-yard line, and the second after safety Roosevelt Taylor intercepted a pass and ran 16 yards to the San Diego 20.

Bill Munson's four-yard touchdown pass to Larry Walton with 18 seconds left vaulted Detroit past Baltimore before 91,745 fans at the University of Michigan Stadium—the largest crowd ever to watch a pre-season game by either team.

It was the second Munson to Walton scoring strike, the first covering 10 yards. Errol Mann accounted for the other Detroit points with four field goals and two conversions.

Buffalo's Dennis Shaw and O.J. Simpson also collaborated on two TD passes, for 52 and 10 yards, in the Bills' victory over the Patriots. Wayne Patrick scored the other two Bills' touchdowns, on a one-yard run after a 47-yard pass from Shaw to Simpson, and on a three-yard pass from Jim Harris.

Jim Plunkett, Boston's heralded rookie quarterback, completed 11 of 25 passes for 162 yards and one touchdown, but was intercepted four times.

Al Woodall, substituting for the injured Joe Namath, directed the Jets to their victory over the Giants in their all-New York battle at New Haven, Conn. Woodall redeemed himself for last year's terrible performance when he was yanked after the first quarter with the Giants leading 21-0. He guided the Jets to a 20-0 advantage before the Giants were even able to get out of their own territory.

Woodall scored the Jets' first touchdown and set up two scoring runs by Emerson Boozer and a pair of field goals by Bobby Howfield.

French Mare Victorious in Trotting

By TED MEIER

WESTBURY, N.Y. (AP) — Une-de-Mai and Jeanne-Rene Gougeon did it again for La Belle France.

The 7-year-old French mare and her 43-year-old French driver won the $125,000 Roosevelt International Trot, symbol of the world trotting championship, last Saturday night as the United States took a back seat in the harness racing classic for the seventh straight year.

Just as they did in winning the 1969 global spectacular against the 1-5 favorite, Nevele Pride of America, Une de Mai charged through the stretch and beat Fresh Yankee by a nose in the very last stride.

Fresh Yankee, the defending champion from Canada, had taken the lead in the final 25 yards and many in the crowd of 39,247 thought the favored 8-year-old mare had won for the second straight year.

"I thought he got me a step past the wire," commented Joe O'Brien, who reined Fresh Yankee. "But the photo showed differently so I guess I was

As Expected Cuba Beats U.S. Team

MIAMI (AP) — Cuba beat the United States 3-1 Sunday night to become champion of the North-Central American and Caribbean volleyball tournament and play in the 1972 Olympic Games in Munich, Radio Havana reported.

The United States took the first set 15-8 before a capacity crowd of 20,000 at the Sports Coliseum in Havana, the Miami-monitored broadcast said.

In the second set, Cuba came from behind, scoring seven consecutive points to win 15-10, the radio said. Cuba smashed an uncoordinated U.S. defense to take the third set 15-6, according to the broadcast.

Despite a great offensive by Larry Wendell of the United States, Cuba took the fourth set 15-8, the radio said.

The Cuban volleyball team defeated the United States for the gold medal in the Pan American Games held recently in Cali, Colombia.

The Havana tournament started Tuesday, ending Sunday night with Cuba and the United States both going into the play-off with three straight victories.

Cuba's victory left the United States in second place and Mexico third.

Past Is Gone Hopes Coach of Aggies

By JERRY WAGGONER

Bryan Daily Eagle

Written for Associated Press

COLLEGE STATION, Tex.

(AP) — The past, to Texas A&M coach Gene Stallings, is just that—past.

With this thought in his mind and the minds of his football team, some 110 strong, the Aggies dive into the 1971 football season with optimism, dedication and perhaps more experience than Stallings ever has enjoyed in his previous six years.

The atrocious 2-9 season the Aggies suffered in 1970 is a bleak memory indeed for the young Aggies to stomach. But with a year of experience which came brutally, they have grown in maturity as well as size.

"To be a winning football team," Stallings emphasizes strongly, "a team must eliminate mistakes. We led the Southwest Conference last season in off sides and motion penalties. Those come from lack of concentration."

Another set of categories in which the Aggies must improve drastically are fumbles and ball control. They fumbled 41 times and lost 25 of them. In total offense plays the Aggies ran only 775 to the opposition's 836.

"I've discarded the big play theory," Stallings informed. "I feel we've relied on that too much in the past. The biggest play in football is the first and 10. If a team makes yardage on the first two plays a big play third down won't be necessary nearly as often."

There is no secret about the Cadets' plus factors. Stallings has almost twice as many returning lettermen as any other SWC school, 45 to be exact. He'll have two lettermen at every position except free safety where super star Dave Elmendorf graduated, going on to the pro ranks.

"My big concern now is the defensive secondary. I don't think our secondary was too good last year and we've lost wrong."

Une de Mai came four wide through the stretch to win with a swift 29 1-5 final quarter. His time for the 1 1/4 miles was 2:34 4-5. He paid $7 in the mutuels as the 5-2 second choice. Fresh Yankee was the 9-5 choice. Dart Hanover was third.

Fresh Yankee, who became the first North American trotter to win $1 million with her second place $31,250, and Une de Mai, who won $62,500 and has career earnings of $1,300,855, meet again this Saturday in the $30,000 Roquepine Trot over the same distance at Roosevelt Raceway.

In other weekend sulky features, Kentucky won the Canadian Pacing Derby at Greenwood Park, Keystone Memento scored in the Crawford Pace for 3-year-old fillies at Monticello and Lindy's Speedy Lady took the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes for 3-year-old filly trotters at The Meadows.

Indians Not Lacking in Motivation

By HARRY KING

Associated Press Writer

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) —

Despite three straight Southland Conference championships and a national title, the Arkansas State University Indians don't lack motivation.

"I honestly don't see any problems about complacency," says Bill Davidson, who replaced Benjie Ellender as the Indians' head coach when Ellender left for Tulane last winter. "I've been around this group ever since they were freshmen. They like to compete, they like to win and they know what it takes to win."

"How many seniors ever had a chance to play for four straight conference championships, two straight national championships?" Davidson said. "The seniors have been leaders as ASU for what seems like years."

Ten of the 15 seniors who will play a big role this fall have earned three letters. Their three-year record is 26-4-2. They have won 14 straight and haven't lost in their last 19 outings.

"They have confidence in themselves," Davidson said. "I've seen this bunch behind before and you can't say they're a bunch of front-runners. I've seen them play close ball games for 60 minutes and just keep hanging and hanging."

Davidson, who was Ellender's offensive coordinator, knows our best man from that unit.

"When spring training began I felt our biggest problem was the offensive line. We allowed our quarterback to be dropped far too often. But we felt we accomplished this phase of the game in spring drills."

There still has to be another area of concern for Stallings, but he shall learn soon what kind of condition junior quarterback Lex James is in. James was stricken with infectious hepatitis last year and missed all of spring training.

"We think James is healthy and ready to go now. But Mark Green (spring sensation from Odessa) might win the job from James. And there is a terrific battle with sophomore Tim Trimmer and senior Joe Mac King in the race."

If Stallings had a secret weapon, it would have to be a new addition to the Aggie team, world record holding sprinter Curtis Mills of the A&M track team. Mills holds the world's 440-yard dash mark.

"Everyone immediately thinks of Curtis being a blazing split receiver. But we talked it over with him and decided his best spot would be free safety. We still don't know what kind of football player he is, but we sure welcome the chance to introduce him to the game," Stallings smiled.

The Aggies have some quality players. Stallings said he'd have to start with James, guard Leonard Forey, tight end Homer May, defensive lineman Van Odum and deep defender David Hoot. "A lot more have a chance to make all-conference, but those are the ones I'd have to start with."

"I think we are going to have a good football team. I feel certain that we'll be vastly improved in the mental mistake area this year and that all will lead to improvement."

"We played a lot of hard 'em, scare 'em football last year. In 1971 we hope to have a solid, sound attack. We are forgetting last year except as a reminder of what the bad times are like. Everyone is dedicated to making 1971 a year of happier times," Stallings concluded.

The experience is there. The talent is there. And the schedule is there. If Stallings can put all three together with dedication, the record should speak for itself.

he'll get no sympathy from opposing coaches.

"We'll be the big game on everybody's schedule," he said.

The blue-chip seniors include tailback Calvin Harrell, quarterback James Hamilton, offensive guard Wayne Dorton, offensive guard turned linebacker Bill Phillips, defensive halfback Dennis Meyer and tight end Steve Lockhart. All are pro prospects.

Harrell, who arrived at ASU from Memphis as a 180-pounder, played at 213 last year and may weigh more than 220 this year. Davidson says the extra strength is in Harrell's upper extremities - shoulders, arm and neck.

"He wants to be a pro back and he's dedicated himself to that," Davidson said. "Arlington coaches described him best as a nickel and dime runner. They meant that he would never break the long one on you but that he would get a lot of five- and 10-yard runs."

Harrell, who has gained more than 2,000 yards rushing the past two years, will be backed by Johnnie Carr and David Mitchell.

"For a school our size, you have to look a lot of places to find the material we have among our running backs," Davidson said. Besides Harrell, Carr and Mitchell, there are fullbacks Marshall Walls and Jeff Sackett.

Hamilton was redshirted a year and then thrown into action. He responded with three SLC titles.

"Blanton Collier said the thing that Hamilton does is the thing he's looking for in a quarterback, he takes the other 10 down the field and scores," Davidson said.

Hamilton, a 6-foot-2, 218-pounder, has thrown for almost 4,500 yards in three seasons.

"He's a great thrower on the move, regardless of what the position of his throwing arm is in relation to his feet," Davidson said. "If he sees a receiver coming open he just cuts loose, even if he's between steps."

Phillips, a 6-foot-2, 240-pounder with exceptional speed, was an All-American at guard last year but was moved to linebacker in the spring. The move is an indication of what Davidson thinks of sophomore guards Scott Foster and Jim Gatlin.

Dorton is bigger (6-foot-1, 248) and stronger than Phillips, but not as quick. Dorton, however, can run the 40 in 5.0, which is faster than the pros ask of their prospects.

Meyer, who was named defensive player of the year last year in the SLC, has tremendous quickness (4.6 in the 40). He has intercepted 24 passes during his career at ASU, including 13 last year.

Davidson may use Meyer as a wide receiver on a spot basis because of his great hands and speed.

Lockhart, 6-foot-4, 233, caught 22 passes for four touchdowns last year and 30 in 1969. A superb blocker, Lockhart is particularly adept at making the clutch reception in a crowd.

Those are some of the pluses. Flanker Chet Douthitt and kicking specialist Bobby Gentry have graduated, but Kearney Blalack, a 172-pounder with game - breaking speed appears set to replace Douthitt.

U.S. Players Beat Aussies in 2 Matches

NEW YORK (AP) — Gustavo

Palafax and Bobby Riggs won the final two singles matches as the United States beat Australia 3-2 Sunday and retained the Stevens Cup.

The cup represents the international senior team tennis championship.

Trailing 2-1 after Saturday's play, the United States gained its victory when Palafax, a former Mexican Davis Cupper living in Little Rock, Ark., beat Bob Howe 2-6, 8-6, 9-7 and Riggs of Plandome, N.Y., beat Jim Gilchrist 9-7, 6-3.

Travelers Beaten by Memphis

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The

Memphis Blues collected on three home runs and two doubles to defeat the Arkansas Travelers in Dixie Association play, 5-3, here Sunday afternoon.

Randy Bobb of the Blues broke a 1-1 tie in the fourth inning when he hit a two-run home run, pushing the Blues out in front 3-1. Danny Napoleon hit a home run in the bottom of the fourth to make the score 3-2.

At the end of six innings the score was 4-3 in favor of the Blues, but Arkansas did not get any closer.

THEATRE ON WHEELS

EDMONTON (AP) Citadel-on-Wheels, the travelling branch of Edmonton's professional Citadel Theatre, has just concluded its third season, "the most successful yet," says Mrs. Olive Finland, general manager.

The six-actor company visited schools throughout the province to perform plays, and judging by the response from principals, teachers and parents, this type of participatory theatre is a stimulus to students.

In eight months the company visited 94 communities for 364 performances in 180 schools. The total audience was 72,670 students.

Bombers Hit Below DMZ in 20 Raids

By ROBERT TUCKMAN
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. B52 bombers flew nearly 20 more strikes just below the demilitarized zone today, and South Vietnamese infantrymen reported finding bodies of 76 North Vietnamese killed by earlier B52 raids.

Despite the heavy raids along the northern frontier, the South Vietnamese Command reported three more North Vietnamese rocket and mortar attacks on forward bases below the DMZ and two other shellings in the northern provinces. But a military spokesman, Lt. Col. Le Trung Hien, said there were no casualties.

Hien said a company from the South Vietnamese 1st Infantry Division found bodies of 76 North Vietnamese soldiers about 15 miles south of the DMZ in an area where B52 bombers hit earlier. He said the infantrymen also found nine machine guns, four rocket launchers and 10 assault rifles.

The spokesman reported only one ground action in the area below the DMZ, a fight near Fire Base Alpha 4. Hien said government troops killed four North Vietnamese and suffered two men killed and 14 wounded.

The U.S. Command announced that three American fighter-bombers attacked anti-aircraft and missile sites inside North Vietnam Sunday in two separate strikes. A communique said results of the strikes were not known, but the American planes were not damaged.

The strikes were the 50th and 51st "protective reaction" attacks reported in North Vietnam this year.

The U.S. planes hit at gun and missile sites 38 and 115 miles northwest of the demilitarized zone, military spokesmen said. Two of the U.S. planes were on a bombing mission over Laos when they were fired upon by anti-aircraft guns inside North Vietnam, spokesmen said. The third plane also was flying a mission over Laos and attacked when it detected by electronic means that a North Vietnamese missile site was tracking it with radar preparatory to firing, the U.S. Command said.

The U.S. Command also reported that American troop strength in Vietnam was reduced another 2,800 men last week to 220,100 men, the lowest since February 1966.

In neighboring Cambodia, heavy fighting was reported Sunday along Highway 6 about 50 miles northeast of Phnom Penh.

The Cambodian Command claimed 60 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong were killed, apparently most of them by air strikes and artillery fire. There was no official report of Cambodian casualties, but other sources said at least half a dozen government troops were killed.

Protect Your Horses From Blood Suckers

Every year more and more people derive pleasure from riding and caring for horses. External parasite populations are at a peak this time of year and may be particularly bothersome to horses if insecticides are not used in a parasite control program.

Calvin J. Caldwell, county Extension agent, says horn flies, stable flies, horse flies, ticks, lice, and mosquitoes all have the ability to suck blood from the animal. Horse flies do not suck blood, but when sufficiently plentiful, they can be tremendously annoying to horses. The bloodsucking parasites not only bother the animal, but also have the ability to adversely affect its health through blood loss. Horses may appear unthrifty or develop anemia as a result of excess blood loss. Bloodsucking external parasites are also capable of disease transmission from horse to horse.

Several insecticides may be used on horses in 1971. CO-Ral, Delnav, Ciodrin, Malathion, synergized pyrethrins, Vapona, Lindane, and toxaphene are all currently registered for use. Check the insecticide container label carefully for mixing instructions. If hand application is made by means of a sponge, rubber gloves should be worn to protect the hands.

KY'S REFUSAL

successfully maneuvered Ky back on the ballot after Gen. Duong Van Minh's withdrawal from the race left Thieu unopposed, issued a brief statement saying it regretted the vice president's decision. Officials at the Western White House in San Clemente, Calif., also expressed regret but indicated the U.S. government still hopes Thieu will face more than token opposition.

Radio Hanoi said the Supreme Court's reversal putting Ky back on the ballot was a "farce ordered by President Nixon in a vain attempt to give the appearance of legality" to the election.

"Nixon has already declared that Thieu is to be re-elected," Hanoi said. "But to make it look like a true and legal election Nixon had to have two candidates. So he ordered the puppet regime court that had thrown Ky out to put Ky back in."

Despite Ky's refusal to campaign, his name will appear on the ballot in accordance with the election law's provision that "candidates do not have the right to withdraw" after the Supreme Court's final posting of the election list.

Ky told a news conference that the Supreme Court, which had barred him from the ballot on Aug. 5 and reinstated him Aug. 21, "was unabashedly used to serve the political ambitions" of Thieu.

He said Gen. Minh's withdrawal from the race upset Thieu's "design to use an opponent state as a screen to conceal electoral fraud. This event prompted the Supreme Court on Aug. 21, in the most hasty and most bizarre fashion, to include our state in the second posting of the list of candidates, and this despite the fact that we had refused to file an appeal."

"Once again it became clear that the law is interpreted differently according to the needs of each moment. The inevitable conclusion is that under such circumstances the October election will not escape the predicament of a prefabricated affair."

Ky said the war "has reached a new turning point." Only a president "chosen by the people in a free and democratic election with due respect to the constitution and the law ... can have sufficient quality and prestige to rally the people in the new struggle facing the nation," he said.

Under Ky's proposal to start the election process over again, Senate President Nguyen Van Huynh would assume the duties of the presidency for three months and would organize the election to be held during that period. Ky said this procedure is authorized by the constitution.

Ky's refusal to enter the campaign was another setback for U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker, who had also tried without success to keep Gen. Minh in the race. Bunker met with Ky on Saturday and again Sunday, urging him to run, but Ky said he told the ambassador he believed "if the election were to be organized by Thieu, that no guarantee or no pressure could bring about honest elections."

The U.S. government is anxious for a two-man race to give at least the appearance of a contested election. Bunker is reported to have returned from Washington last week with word from President Nixon that if Thieu runs unopposed, congressional critics of the war in Vietnam may succeed in cutting U.S. aid to the Saigon regime.

Family of Officer Posts Reward

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The family of former Little Rock policeman Raymond L. Miller has refused to accept a medical examiner's report that Miller committed suicide and offered a $5,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for his death.

Miller was one of three patrolmen fired Aug. 10 for allegedly beating two burglary suspects. His body was found Wednesday night in his North Little Rock home and state Medical Examiner Rodney Carlton said the former officer died of a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Miller of Houston, Tex., Miller's parents, said Saturday their son did not commit suicide.

Attorney Sought in Prison Break

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP) — The San Francisco Chronicle reported today that an Oakland attorney is being sought for questioning in the investigation into Saturday's bloody breakout try at San Quentin Prison in which Soledad Brother George Jackson and five others died.

The paper said prison authorities identified him as Stephen Mitchell Bingham, 29, and said he was the lawyer who visited Jackson Saturday afternoon.

The Chronicle said prison authorities reported that Jackson, minutes after leaving Bingham in the visiting room, produced a 9mm pistol and launched his abortive escape attempt.

Bruce Bales, Marin County district attorney, confirmed that Bingham was being sought, the Chronicle said. Bales would not say precisely why.

The Chronicle said Bingham is a grandson of the late Hiram Bingham who served as Connecticut governor and U.S. senator before his death in 1956.

The paper quoted prison sources as saying:

"We know he (Jackson) was clean when he entered the visiting room—he underwent a skin search—and that on leaving he was not out of the sight of his guards."

"And he was hot—he had a drawl from the race upset gun—when the guards were about to search him again."

Prison officials say they now believe a San Quentin sergeant's concerned curiosity may have triggered Jackson into starting the escape try earlier than he and fellow convicts had planned.

The sergeant and Jackson were among six men killed Saturday in what prison officers call San Quentin's "blackest, bloodiest day."

Sgt. Jere Graham was shot in the forehead when he went inside the maximum security adjustment center apparently to check on why other guards had failed to emerge, Associate Warden James Park said Sunday.

Jackson, 29, brandishing a foreign-made pistol, was cut down by rifle fire from a guard tower as he and another black convict dashed into a sunlit courtyard toward a 20-foot wall, prison authorities said.

Four other victims—two guards and two convicts—were found covered with blood in Jackson's cell, some with their throats cut. All but Jackson were white.

Prison officials earlier reported that all five white victims, including Graham, had been slashed to death.

Seven Persons Killed on State Highways

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Seven persons lost their lives on Arkansas' highways this past weekend.

Four of those seven victims died in double-fatality accidents. Phillips County officials said an autopsy has been ordered for one of the victims, Arthur Parham, 76, of Lexa to determine if he actually died of injuries received in the accident or a heart attack.

An official said that Parham died at a Helena hospital early Sunday, six hours after he had been struck by a car as he walked in front of his home.

The Associated Press weekend fatality count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

Other victims identified by State Police were: —Zyron Hoy, 18, of near Hughes, who was killed Sunday afternoon when the car in which he was riding overturned near Hughes. He was thrown from the vehicle.

—Bobby Gene Ellis, 18, of Ola (Yell County) was killed Saturday night on Arkansas 28 near Danville when he lost control of the car he was driving and it overturned several times.

—Ethel Marie Stoval, 20, and Paul D. Stoval, 2, both of Mt. Ida were killed on Arkansas 27 near Norman (Montgomery County) Saturday night when a car driven by Don Stoval, 24, of Mt. Ida, struck a tree.

—Donald P. David, 28, of Malvern and his wife, Carolyn, 27, were killed Friday night when a trailer being towed by a pickup truck came loose, crossed the median and struck their car on Interstate 30 near Benton.
